DAVE BLACK

One of the pioneers in the conversion to all-digital photography, Black is best known for his sports photography including covering Olympic games for Newsweek. Constantly reinventing himself, he pushes new frontiers in using lighting techniques in innovative ways. Black has been a Summit faculty member for almost 30 years.

JOEY TERRILL

A Los Angeles-based corporate and editorial photographer with a long and varied career in photography, in recent years migrating towards his passions for environmental portraits and studio/location lighting with a talent for effectively communicating the principles of controlled lighting in terms anyone can understand.

MATT HERNANDEZ

Matt is a portrait photographer out of Kentucky who specializes in on location creative lighting focused on seniors and athletes. He began his career as an award-winning graphic artist, and has since used those skills to help launch a very successful photography career.
